Participation in this training is mandatory for all newly appointed personnel.

Background: The Notification and Federal Employee Anti-Discrimination and Retaliation Act, also known as the No Fear Act, requires that federal agencies be accountable for violations of anti-discrimination and whistleblower protection laws. A federal agency cannot discriminate against an employee or applicant with respect to the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or genetic information. Discrimination on these bases is prohibited by federal law. Personnel Bulletin 18-01 outlines the Department's policy on providing a work environment free from harassment by (1) defining unacceptable conduct that violates this policy; (2) outlining the rights and responsibilities of employees, supervisors, and managers; and (3) establishing reporting procedures and accountability measures.

This briefing is an overview of both topics: Anti-Harassment from the EEO perspective and PB 18-01, the Department's policy on Prevention and Elimination of Harassing Conduct. Attendees will be provided with an opportunity to ask questions.

In addition to this briefing, all new employees are automatically enrolled in and must complete the online No Fear Act asynchronous course in DOI Talent, the Department's Learning Management System. Please note: Attendees to this briefing are required to also complete the assigned online No FEAR Act course.

Facilitator: Dr. Vicki A Brown, CLO/OSEOD/HCD

Presenters:

- Tanisha M. Edmonds, ODICR or representative: Overview of Unlawful Harassment and The Notification and Federal Employee Anti-Discrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002 (the No FEAR Act)
