

United States Department of the Interior

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION
Washington, DC 20240

IN REPLY REFER TO:

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES POSTED BY ORDER OF THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR An Agency of the United States Government

Consistent with the Elijah E. Cummings Federal Employee Antidiscrimination Act of 2020 and 29 C.F.R. § 1614.501, the U.S. Department of the Interior (DOI), Bureau of Reclamation (Reclamation) notifies employees and the public that from April 25, 2021, the Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Civil Rights (ODICR) issued a finding of discrimination, which determined that DOI/Reclamation supervisors at Grand Coulee Dam in Grand Coulee, Washington, violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, in January 2019. DOI/Reclamation provide assurance that, through measures adopted and through corrective, curative, or preventative actions taken, both the particular types of discrimination found and violations of the law similar to those found will not recur. Specifically, ODICR has directed Reclamation to pay compensatory damages, attorney's fees and costs, and consider disciplinary actions against the responsible management officials. ODICR also directed DOI/Reclamation supervisors to attend compliance training hosted by ODICR. DOI/Reclamation also provide assurance that its supervisors will cease from engaging in the specific unlawful employment practices found in the instant matter.

This Notice also informs all DOI employees, former employees, and applicants for employment of the rights and protections available to them under Section 201 of the Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002 (No FEAR Act), Federal Antidiscrimination Laws, and Whistleblower Protection Laws. Please see the No FEAR Act Notice at the following link for more information: <https://www.opm.gov/equal-employment-opportunity/no-fear-act/#url=Notice>.

Federal law prohibits DOI from discriminating against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex (including sexual orientation and gender identity), pregnancy, age, disability, or genetic information. Federal law also prohibits DOI from restraining, interfering with, coercing, or retaliating against individuals who engage in protected EEO activities by exercising their rights to oppose practices made unlawful by Federal Antidiscrimination Laws, or by participating in proceedings pursuant to Federal Antidiscrimination Laws. DOI confirms its commitment to comply with these statutory provisions.
