NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES
POSTED BY ORDER OF THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
An Agency of the United States Government

Consistent with the Elijah E. Cummings Federal Employee Antidiscrimination Act of 2020 and 29 C.F.R. § 1614.501, the U.S. Department of the Interior (DOI), U.S. Geological Survey (USGS), notifies employees and the public that on March 15, 2021, the Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Civil Rights (ODICR) issued a finding of discrimination, which determined that DOI/USGS supervisors in the Office of the Associate Chief Information Office, in Reston, Virginia, violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., during March, January 2019 and October 2019. DOI/USGS provides assurance that, through measures adopted and through corrective, curative, or preventative actions taken, both the particular type(s) of discrimination found and violations of the law similar to those found will not recur. Specifically, ODICR has directed USGS to pay monetary remedies and consider disciplinary action against the supervisors responsible for the discrimination. ODICR also directed DOI/USGS supervisors responsible for the discrimination to attend compliance training hosted by ODICR. DOI/USGS also provides assurance that its supervisors will cease from engaging in the specific unlawful employment practice found in the instant matter.

This Notice also informs all DOI employees, former employees, and applicants for employment of the rights and protections available to them under Section 201 of the Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002 (No FEAR Act), Federal Antidiscrimination Laws, and Whistleblower Protection Laws. Please see the No FEAR Act Notice at the following link for more information: <https://www.opm.gov/equal-employment-opportunity/no-fear-act/#url=Notice>.

Federal law prohibits DOI from discriminating against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex (including sexual orientation and gender identity), pregnancy, age, disability, or genetic information. Federal law also prohibits DOI from restraining, interfering with, coercing, or retaliating against individuals who engage in protected EEO activities by exercising their rights to oppose practices made unlawful by Federal Antidiscrimination Laws, or by participating in proceedings pursuant to Federal Antidiscrimination Laws. DOI confirms its commitment to comply with these statutory provisions.
