Hi -- I'd like to start thinking about how we can have the Secretary engage with employees at the MIB on a regular basis. We are already planning something in Denver and he recently did an event in Alaska which was great.

What do you think about launching a quarterly brownbag lunch where he can engage with employees in the cafeteria downstairs? I have some thoughts about how past Secretaries have done this and can present you with a plan. Just wanted to start the conversation. Might we be able to do this in early August before vacation? He said that he wants to launch a video for employees about the re-org before he leaves so this would tie in nicely.

Another idea -- we also need to get him to USGS and can do a "town hall" as they have the capability of doing a "webX" so all USGS employees around the globe can join. He can answer questions through a moderator (they submit questions through the comms staff, done it many times, has worked well).

Thanks!

Hey Caroline – We actually found another location that has a lot more privacy. I have made reservations at Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar located at 8721 W Charleston Blvd, Las Vegas, NV 89117 for 7:30pm. The reservation will be under Ashley Jonkey, our State Director, who will be staffing the Senator.

Can you please send me the name and contact of the person who be staffing the Secretary?

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

Thanks, Micah. Senator Heller likes Rick's Rollin Smoke BBQ in downtown Las Vegas. The address is: 725 S Las Vegas Blvd, Las Vegas, NV 89101. He's not picky though--- if you guys think something else is better, we're game.

Ashley Jonkey will be in attendance. She is Dean's state director. Her cell is (b) (6) and she's cc'd here as well.

Friends of Gold Butte are the folks who are fully supportive of national monuments. They've been pushing for monument status for years. The local and county officials (majority of them) feel a lot differently about it.

I will attend with Donna Bath, my eastern Nevada rural representative.

Rusty/Caroline,

Attorney General Laxalt, Chief Investigator Roland Swanson and I (3 people) plan to drive out to the City site (Basin and Range) on Sunday to meet the group. I understand that the tour will commence at 2:45 pm and end at 4:15 pm. Investigator Swanson is working with the BLM field office in Ely regarding travel and security issues.

On Monday, Assistant Solicitor General Joseph Tartakovsky and I (2 people) plan to attend the meeting in Overton as representatives of Attorney General Laxalt. I understand that this meeting with elected officials will take place from Noon to 1 pm at the Community Center in Overton.

Additionally, Assistant Solicitor Jordan Smith (1 person) plans to attend the meeting with Friends of Gold Butte in Mesquite. I understand that this will take place at the Highland Estates Resort in Mesquite from 10 am to 11 am.

Please let me know if there are any issues with the above plan, or if any of the times or locations have changed. I believe that you have my cell phone in case you need to call me.

Laura,

I have tried to contact Jason and have left him a voicemail. In his voicemail, he did not specify which meeting he would like to attend, as I don't think he is aware of what meetings are planned. His voicemail also did not specify the context or what he wanted to share, except that he was aware that the Secretary was holding meetings and that he would like to have the opportunity to attend. From my knowledge of Jason's view on Gold Butte and Basin and Range, he has remained neutral in RAC Meetings with the rest of the RAC Members. If I were to guess, he most likely sees, appreciates, and understands the resource values but would most likely have preferred the areas to have Congressional designations instead of a Presidential Proclamation. Despite the issues that we in Southern Nevada are dealing with, he has always been a strong advocate of having people first understand the laws, policies, and regulations that BLM is required to deal with and then assisting BLM with finding solutions and resolving issues. As a surveyor and a leader (I believe a VP) in his company he deals with land developers in Southern Nevada and works very closely with major utilities such as NV Energy and Valley Electric Association. He has strong professional ties in both Nye and Clark County. He is also an avid hunter and spends much of his Fall in Northern and Central Nevada hunting elk and deer. As soon as I can get through to Jason I'll ask him to relay the context of his request to attend one of the meetings. Tim

Thanks Tim. I am copying this reply to Laura and Rusty so they can make a determination regarding Jason's request.

Laura and Rusty, just a little more detail here--Resource Advisory Councils, or RACs, are citizen advisory groups required by BLM's organic act, the 1976 Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA, Title III, Section 309). The Nevada RACs have provided an important avenue for public engagement with the agency.

Rudy,

I received a voicemail from Jason Higgins (BLM, Mojave, Southern Great Basin Resource advisory Council Chairman) regarding his interest in receiving an invite to attend one of the Secretary's Monday, July 31, meetings. I have not promised anything except that I would pass his request on to you. As reference, Jason is a surveyor by trade and is in high demand in Southern Nevada and throughout the rest of Nevada and Utah. He has been our RAC Chair for the last 3 years and brings great credibility throughout the Southern Nevada area. Below, please find Jason's contact information. Should you have questions regarding Jason, please give me a call or email. Thanks, Tim

Hey Rob,

Aaron mentioned you had called re: a plan B for the helicopter tour on Sunday. I've attached the BLM's itinerary, which includes a driving portion of the trip should there be helicopter issues.

Are you the one advancing NV? I just threw Heather's name down since she had been tasked with it originally. Let me know if I should change that on the itinerary!

Hi Greg,

Apologies for the delay. The Secretary's schedule is below on Sunday the 30th (apologies it doesn't copy/paste perfectly). I've highlighted the City tour as mentioned over the phone. It is the longest portion the Secretary is on the ground and would likely be the best place for AG Laxalt to meet up with the group. I've cc'ed Rusty Roddy, who will be advancing the trip and coordinating the Secretary's NV travel going forward.

Best,

Rusty, it appears to me that "City" is just west (maybe a mile or two) of the area marked "Water Gap" on BLM maps. When you have a chance, please call to confirm so that we can make travel arrangements.

Hi Greg,

Apologies for the delay. The Secretary's schedule is below on Sunday the 30th (apologies it doesn't copy/paste perfectly). I've highlighted the City tour as mentioned over the phone. It is the longest portion the Secretary is on the ground and would likely be the best place for AG Laxalt to meet up with the group. I've cc'ed Rusty Roddy, who will be advancing the trip and coordinating the Secretary's NV travel going forward.

Best,
Caroline

Hey Rusty and Caroline,

Upon the recommendation of our Southern Nevada helicopter team, we suggest changing the landing site in Gold Butte National Monument from Whitney Pocket to Kirt's Grotto. Kirt's Grotto is cooler and shadier and also has examples of petroglyphs, whereas Whitney Pocket is exposed and the only cultural resources there relate to the Civilian Conservation Corps. Kirt's Grotto will not change any flight times, so for Plan A, there are no changes to the itinerary except to replace "Whitney Pocket" with "Kirt's Grotto." However, due to the extra drive time to reach Kirt's Grotto, the day gets somewhat longer in Plan B (ground transportation only.)

Please find attached an updated itinerary that reflects stopping at Kirt's Grotto in Gold Butte. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks!

PS Rusty if you can advise regarding who, if anyone, from BLM is invited to the meetings on Monday, we are still looking for that info. Thanks.

Hi folks,

This is to confirm that the Secretary's visit has been rescheduled to Sunday, July 30. I have attached an updated itinerary to reflect the following changes:

- 1) He is now landing at 0735, so times are moved earlier.
- 2) Media are NOT requested for the monument tour. Instead, they will be invited to a news conference on Monday 7/31. So no media meetings will happen during the tour on Sunday, July 30.
- 3) Note that this schedule change means that the visit will be happening during a Congressional recess. Senator Heller has already contacted the Secretary's office and the Senator has been invited to attend the meetings on Monday. Congressionals will not be invited to any part of the tour on Sunday.

Please reply to this email with your feedback on the schedule change. I am already aware that Mike Herder needs to confirm that the LACMA representatives can attend the City portion; as I told Mike, City is a priority for the Secretary.

Thanks for staying flexible everyone!

Ely is good with the revised schedule. We have contacted LACMA about the proposed schedule changes. They are good with moving to Sunday as well. We will be responsible for the lunch arrangements as well, but please recognize that we have limited options considering where all this is taking place. We will need a head count.

Please note also that Harry's last name is Konwin (not Conwin).

Given the change in plans, where and when will Marci be meeting us for the BARNM portion of the tour?

I wanted to connect you with Rusty Roddy, our Director of Scheduling & Advance. He will be advancing the Nevada trip for the Secretary. I will fill him in on the schedule for Monday that you sent over, but he may have additional questions. Let us know as well who would be best for him to connect with for advance purposes!

Thanks again for your hard work with the itinerary!

Hi Rudy,

We were just talking to Downey about the Secretary's preferences for the trip, and we were wondering if we might be able to extend the trip for an extra hour to re-include the hike to Falling Man petroglyphs. Additionally, with the Senators back in Nevada over the weekend, the Secretary has now expressed interest in having them join a potential hike. Please let us know if you think we could re-include that portion and possibly eat the lunches in the vehicle on the way to the hiking location!

Best,
Caroline

Caroline, here are the specifics on adding Falling Man back in. If we invite the Senators for a hike that would be the best place to do it. He could meet the senators with BLM staff at Whitney Pocket when he lands at 9:30. It is then a 15-minute drive from the Whitney Pocket parking lot to the Falling Man parking lot. Falling Man is about 30 minutes in to the petroglyph, 20 minutes to look at the petroglyph, then 30 minutes back out. 10 to 11 am will be very hot for that hike so please warn all involved to wear hats.

Eating lunch in the vehicles will be difficult because the drive is very short. In this itinerary, we are looking at a 30-min lunch break back at Whitney Pocket after the hike right around noon and it is likely to be 110 degrees or so. We will have a shade canopy and cold drinks in coolers but it will still be hot.

Let me know if I should rework the itinerary to include this. Basically it adds about 2 hours including the 30-minute lunch break.

Hi folks,

This is to confirm that the Secretary's visit has been rescheduled to Sunday, July 30. I have attached an updated itinerary to reflect the following changes:

- 1) He is now landing at 0735, so times are moved earlier.
- 2) Media are NOT requested for the monument tour. Instead, they will be invited to a news conference on Monday 7/31. So no media meetings will happen during the tour on Sunday, July 30.

3) Note that this schedule change means that the visit will be happening during a Congressional recess. Senator Heller has already contacted the Secretary's office and the Senator has been invited to attend the meetings on Monday. Congressionals will not be invited to any part of the tour on Sunday.

Please reply to this email with your feedback on the schedule change. I am already aware that Mike Herder needs to confirm that the LACMA representatives can attend the City portion; as I told Mike, City is a priority for the Secretary.

Hey Caroline and Rusty, one other thing.

If the helicopter has an issue and is unavailable and we have to go with Plan B, ground-only transportation, would the Secretary want to go to City or Falling Man? We probably would not be able to do both due to the driving distances involved.

Caroline, here are the specifics on adding Falling Man back in. If we invite the Senators for a hike that would be the best place to do it. He could meet the senators with BLM staff at Whitney Pocket when he lands at 9:30. It is then a 15-minute drive from the Whitney Pocket parking lot to the Falling Man parking lot. Falling Man is about 30 minutes in to the petroglyph, 20 minutes to look at the petroglyph, then 30 minutes back out. 10 to 11 am will be very hot for that hike so please warn all involved to wear hats.

Eating lunch in the vehicles will be difficult because the drive is very short. In this itinerary, we are looking at a 30-min lunch break back at Whitney Pocket after the hike right around noon and it is likely to be 110 degrees or so. We will have a shade canopy and cold drinks in coolers but it will still be hot.

Let me know if I should rework the itinerary to include this. Basically it adds about 2 hours including the 30-minute lunch break.

As mentioned on the phone, Adam Laxalt has expressed interested in joining still at a point on the ground, likely for the City tour in Basin and Range. Caroline, thanks for the email. We will move forward with the previous version of the itinerary WITHOUT Falling Man.

In other news, I was in a wildland fire briefing today with one of Senator Heller's staffers and he mentioned plans for a dinner between the Secretary and the Senators on Monday night, and no hike. So we will move forward with an itinerary that has no senators and no media on the Sunday tour.

However, I will add a note to the itinerary that AG Laxalt may be meeting us at City. Please advise whether any logistical support or other assistance is requested for his visit.

Thanks!

Also, looks like the Moapa Tribe is good with meeting at 3:00 pm on Monday the 31st at their facility, but they still need to confirm that with the tribal council.

Caroline, here are the specifics on adding Falling Man back in. If we invite the Senators for a hike that would be the best place to do it. He could meet the senators with BLM staff at Whitney Pocket when he lands at 9:30. It is then a 15-minute drive from the Whitney Pocket parking lot to the Falling Man parking lot. Falling Man is about 30 minutes in to the petroglyph, 20 minutes to look at the petroglyph, then 30 minutes back out. 10 to 11 am will be very hot for that hike so please warn all involved to wear hats.

Eating lunch in the vehicles will be difficult because the drive is very short. In this itinerary, we are looking at a 30-min lunch break back at Whitney Pocket after the hike right around noon and it is likely to be 110 degrees or so. We will have a shade canopy and cold drinks in coolers but it will still be hot.

Let me know if I should rework the itinerary to include this. Basically it adds about 2 hours including the 30-minute lunch break.

Hey Caroline,

Please find attached a revised itinerary including Falling Man on Plan A only. It also changes the lunch location and adds senators. Is this more what the Secretary was looking for? (pdf version included in case Word version gets mangled in transmission.)

Hey Caroline and Rusty, one other thing.

If the helicopter has an issue and is unavailable and we have to go with Plan B, ground-only transportation, would the Secretary want to go to City or Falling Man? We probably would not be able to do both due to the driving distances involved.

Caroline, here are the specifics on adding Falling Man back in. If we invite the Senators for a hike that would be the best place to do it. He could meet the senators with BLM staff at Whitney Pocket when he lands at 9:30. It is then a 15-minute drive from the Whitney Pocket parking lot to the Falling Man parking lot. Falling Man is about 30 minutes in to the petroglyph, 20 minutes to look at the petroglyph, then 30 minutes back out. 10 to 11 am will be very hot for that hike so please warn all involved to wear hats.

Eating lunch in the vehicles will be difficult because the drive is very short. In this itinerary, we are looking at a 30-min lunch break back at Whitney Pocket after the hike right around noon and it is likely to be 110 degrees or so. We will have a shade canopy and cold drinks in coolers but it will still be hot.

Let me know if I should rework the itinerary to include this. Basically it adds about 2 hours including the 30-minute lunch break.

Hi Rudy,

We were just talking to Downey about the Secretary's preferences for the trip, and we were wondering if we might be able to extend the trip for an extra hour to re-include the hike to Falling Man petroglyphs. Additionally, with the Senators back in Nevada over the weekend, the Secretary has now expressed interest in having them join a potential hike. Please let us know if you think we could re-include that portion and possibly eat the lunches in the vehicle on the way to the hiking location!

Best,
Caroline

Hi folks,

This is to confirm that the Secretary's visit has been rescheduled to Sunday, July 30. I have attached an updated itinerary to reflect the following changes:

1) He is now landing at 0735, so times are moved earlier.

2) Media are NOT requested for the monument tour. Instead, they will be invited to a news conference on Monday 7/31. So no media meetings will happen during the tour on Sunday, July 30.

3) Note that this schedule change means that the visit will be happening during a Congressional recess. Senator Heller has already contacted the Secretary's office and the Senator has been invited to attend the meetings on Monday. Congressionals will not be invited to any part of the tour on Sunday.

Please reply to this email with your feedback on the schedule change. I am already aware that Mike Herder needs to confirm that the LACMA representatives can attend the City portion; as I told Mike, City is a priority for the Secretary.

Thanks for staying flexible everyone!

Subject: Trip Questions

All,
We're excited for your upcoming visit to New Mexico and have a few questions to assist us in preparing for the trip.

1. Can you let me and Sherman know exactly where he will join your visit. We're thinking you'd like him in El Paso and if that is the case, can we have the hotel where he should book his room for Wednesday night.
2. For press availability in Las Cruces on Thursday, do you need me to do any outreach to media? I'm happy to draft an advisory or make some calls but will need specific details about time, location, and topics the Secretary will take questions on.
3. Sherman is available to provide video and photographers for the Nevada portion of the trip as requested by Jeff Krauss. We here in New Mexico do not have any details about dates, locations, logistics, etc for the Nevada portion of the trip. Can you please provide an outline of the Nevada visit.

BLM New Mexico will provide the google document Aaron requested later today. We're also finalizing maps and fact sheets to upload. If you need anything else, please let me know.

Thank you,
Donna

Hi Victoria and John. Just wanted to let you know you've not been left out as your boss stated recently. I'm going to assume the best and assume that the message we sent that said we'd let you know as soon as we had a set schedule didn't make it to him before he said the following:

"At a press conference in Las Vegas on Friday, Rep. Ruben Kihuen called it "highly disrespectful" for Zinke not to tell him about his upcoming visit or respond to a letter the congressman sent to Zinke's office a week ago about the ongoing national monuments review."

We are still setting our schedule for Monday but we fully intend to keep your office in the loop as promised previously. And as done with all monument reviews, we intend to meet with all sides of monument debate, not just "who will tell him what he wants to hear."

Hi Caroline,

Please find attached a version of the itinerary that reflects today's inputs. (Both pdf and Word in case the Word formatting doesn't work.)

For Nevada BLM staff, this update has the following changes:

- 1) Lunch on the Ely side at White River Narrows.
- 2) No senators or media.
- 3) No hike at Falling Man on the Gold Butte tour.
- 4) Nevada Attorney General Adam Laxalt has requested a photo opportunity with the Secretary at City, so that is reflected on this itinerary.

Caroline, if you could please advise regarding expectations for BLM attendance (or not) at Monday's meetings, it would help folks plan for the day. At this point the only BLM staff confirmed for Monday are myself and John Asselin to provide photography and videography services and assist with any press support, per the request of Laura Rigas through BLM 600 public affairs.

Thanks Tim!

Were the rooms free, and if so, is there usually a fee required for use of the rooms that they're waiving? If there is, we may need to reimburse them.

Tim--

Due to a WH change, RZ needs to be in Ohio on 7/25. Thus, we are moving Nevada to 7/30-7/31. BLM has been tasked with doing the air tour on the 30th. Roundtables on the Monday during the day. You're coordinating with the tribe or do we want BLM to coordinate?

Thanks!
Caroline

ps I forgot to send this, so I apologize. It got stuck in my drafts.

I don't think we need this much downtime actually in between meetings unless you really think it's necessary. Based on your drive times, I think we could do:

8:45-9:50 Drive to Mesquite
10:00-11 Roundtable with Friends of Gold Butte
11:05-11:50 Drive to Overton
12:00-1:00 Round Table with Officials
1:00-2:00 Lunch
2:00-2:20 Drive to Moapa Tribal Facility
2:30-3:30 Tribal Meeting

3:30-5:00 Drive to Las Vegas

Do we need time to meet with the Senators separately? We could do that now with this schedule. I booked him on a late departing flight so we could fit in an additional meeting for sure. Right now we need to be at the airport in Las Vegas at.....9:30PM. At this point, we wouldn't make a non-redeye flight so we might as well add something if there's anything else we could/should do in the area.

Senators unable to join Monday since recess was postponed. Going to ask re: dinner Sunday.

Heather, you want it after the meeting with the tribe? We're doing that meeting at the tribe's building on their land so we'd need to find somewhere to host it or ask them if they'd be willing to allow it. I figured earlier before that might be easier at one of the locations Tim is securing, but let me know. BLM is coordinating that meeting.

I don't think we need this much downtime actually in between meetings unless you really think it's necessary. Based on your drive times, I think we could do:

8:45-9:50 Drive to Mesquite
10:00-11 Roundtable with Friends of Gold Butte
11:05-11:50 Drive to Overton
12:00-1:00 Round Table with Officials
1:00-2:00 Lunch
2:00-2:20 Drive to Moapa Tribal Facility
2:30-3:30 Tribal Meeting

3:30-5:00 Drive to Las Vegas

Do we need time to meet with the Senators separately? We could do that now with this schedule. I booked him on a late departing flight so we could fit in an additional meeting for sure. Right now we need to be at the airport in Las Vegas at.....9:30PM. At this point, we wouldn't make a non-red-eye flight so we might as well add something if there's anything else we could/should do in the area.

Hi Tim and Jason,

We are looking forward to meeting with Secretary Zinke on July 26. I reserved the meeting room at the Highland Estates Resort Hotel located at 555 Highland Dr, Mesquite, NV 89027, from 9am to noon. Per our conversations, I am inviting 20 supporters to join the meeting. I am reaching out to them now. Please let me know if you need anything else from me or there are any changes to the schedule.

Also, we are happy to provide a knowledgeable tour guide for the Secretary's visit to the National Monument. Our volunteer guides know the history and geology of the entire Monument.

Update on tribal outreach for meetings on Weds. 7/26

Hey Caroline,

I left you a couple phone messages today, one on your desk, one on your cell. We are under the impression there may be an additional change to the dates of the visit; can you please confirm?

The Southern Nevada District has contacted the Moapa Tribe per our discussion last week. They are interested in hosting a meeting on July 26 after the Overton meeting. It's about a 20-minute drive from Overton to the Moapa tribal facility, so they are looking at a possible 2:30 start time.

Knowing that the dates are likely to change, we advised the tribal vice chair that the timing needs to stay flexible. They said they would pass that along to their full councils, which would need to approve the meeting anyway.

The Moapa tribal chambers can accommodate 70 to 100 people.

One additional factor is that there are 2 bands of the Moapa, and the Las Vegas Band may be interested in sending a representative to the Moapa meeting, or may request a separate meeting of their own (although the latter is less likely.)

Hey Rudy,

I apologize for the lack of update earlier; we did receive word late last night that the Secretary would be needed in Ohio for an event with POTUS on Tuesday the 25th. We spent the day trying to reconfigure our travel. What we've ended up with is rather than flying from NV to NM, we're going to be going to NV afterwards.

Our ideal itinerary is:

Depart Albuquerque, NM for Las Vegas, NV (7:05AM MDT wheels up, 7:35AM PDT wheels down)
Air/ground tour with BLM

7/31

Meetings with tribe, stakeholders
Red eye to DC

I am so sorry to ask you to shift the itinerary again. Do you think we could make a Sunday work for the tour? I will note that I spoke with our Comms staff and they said they don't believe they need media availabilities on Sunday, just one on Monday that we could set up. Please let me know if this is doable! Happy to do a call with you tomorrow too--unfortunately I had to head home as I wasn't feeling well, but I'll be back in the office tomorrow morning bright and early!

Best,
Caroline

We should discuss to Las Vegas. If we fly commercial, we will likely need to stay through 8/1 out there.

So. We received word last night that POTUS wants the Secretary to also participate in an event on Tuesday 7/25 in Youngstown, OH. The only details I have right now to offer other than the Secretary has agreed to participate is that they are thinking of leaving in the afternoon (but not confirmed). We've rearranged everything to accommodate this.

As of now, this is next week:

7/24:

AM: Tour of DC with Mayor Bowser

PM: Glen Jean, WV with POTUS (travel to and back with POTUS)

7/25:

TBD PM Youngstown, OH event (presumed travel to and back with POTUS)

Location: AMVETS Post 44, 205 Elm Street, Struthers, OH 44471

7/26:

In DC during day

PM: Flight to El Paso, NM (being purchased today; info to come)

7/27:

Las Cruces as currently scheduled

7/28:

Las Cruces as currently scheduled

PM Charter flight to Santa Fe

7/29:

Santa Fe / Sabinoso Wilderness as currently scheduled

7/30

Charter flight to Las Vegas, NV from Santa Fe

Roundtable meetings around Moapa Valley & Mesquite, NV

7/31

Monument Tour with BLM

Red eye flight to DC

8/1-8/4 DC (DEFINITE; the travel will not be pushed back anymore for anything)

8/4 Depart on Personal Travel

I will update ASAP. To relay the answer to Heather's earlier question, we will not flip Nevada back once it's set. Should the OH event fall through, he just gets an extra day in DC.

Hey Caroline,

Please find attached an updated itinerary reflecting the Secretary's new arrival time in Las Vegas. We will be able to keep most of the planned activities from the previous version, except for the hike to the Falling Man petroglyph at Gold Butte.

We do have one somewhat urgent information request regarding the staffer who will be riding the helicopter with the Secretary and his security detail. We need the following information for this person:

Full name, height, weight, and estimated head size (small, medium large). This will be for the flight suits, flight helmets, manifest, and paper work the solicitor needs to approve the flight.

Finally, whoever that staffer is, if they are not a person who is used to helicopters, they should take dramamine before the flight.

Let me know if you have any questions. And if you get hold of any other info, like whether BLM staff are invited to the meetings on the 26th, please advise. Thanks!

This part of the visit has likely been bumped due to a WH event. Probably won't be in Nevada until the 25. > On Jul 17, 2017, at 1:47 PM, Micah Chambers <micah_chambers@ios.doi.gov> wrote: > > Spoke with DH office. Hi Caroline,

My name is Rudy Evenson. I am the acting chief of communications for the BLM in Nevada and I participated in your conference call with Acting State Director Marci Todd last Thursday to begin planning the Secretary's visit to Nevada. I will be the BLM Nevada point of contact for logistics, planning, and public affairs during the visit.

Per last Thursday's discussion, BLM Nevada has prepared a draft itinerary for the Secretary's visit, which I should be able to send you in the next hour or so. Would you be available for a phone call at 4:30 your time to go over it?

I look forward to working with you!

Hi Rudy!

I'm actually on a plane about to depart right now so won't be able to do 4:30 EDT, but I could do a 4:30 MDT! I'm landing in DC and should be back from the airport by 6 Eastern and happy to do a call with you anytime after that.

Best,
Caroline

That sounds great Caroline, let's do 4:30 MDT. That will be 3:30 Reno time and 6:30 DC time. Thanks for your flexibility. We could push it backward another hour too if you would prefer, up to you.

Knew I got the time zone wrong--I always label Nevada incorrectly in my head. Sounds good! I'll let you know when I land if I need to push it further.

Is it easier if you call or if I call? I'm flexible either way.

Great! I hope you had a good flight! Please find attached a draft itinerary for the Secretary's visit. I have attached both a Word version for editing and a .pdf in case the Word version gets messed up in transmission.

It turns out we actually have more folks here in the Nevada state office who would be available for a call if we could do it at 7 pm your time, 4 pm for us. Do you think that could work?

Thanks! Talk to you soon.

I am the acting chief of communications for the BLM in Nevada and I participated in your conference call with Acting State Director Marci Todd last Thursday to begin planning the Secretary's visit to Nevada. I will be the BLM Nevada point of contact for logistics, planning, and public affairs during the visit.

Per last Thursday's discussion, BLM Nevada has prepared a draft itinerary for the Secretary's visit, which I should be able to send you in the next hour or so. Would you be available for a phone call at 4:30 your time to go over it?

I look forward to working with you!

Great! I hope you had a good flight! Please find attached a draft itinerary for the Secretary's visit. I have attached both a Word version for editing and a .pdf in case the Word version gets messed up in transmission.

It turns out we actually have more folks here in the Nevada state office who would be available for a call if we could do it at 7 pm your time, 4 pm for us. Do you think that could work?

Thanks! Talk to you soon.

I think we should get the Secretary to a fire line in Nevada while he is there. The BLM is point on a couple fires out there. May have to leave a day early but I think it's worth it.

Feds to offer new evidence as retrial begins

Jury selection begins today in a retrial stemming from a 2014 armed standoff at Cliven Bundy's Nevada ranch John Locher/Associated Press

Federal prosecutors this week will begin their second attempt to jail participants in the 2014 armed standoff between ranchers and federal agents near Bunkerville, Nev., after the first trial ended in April with the jury deadlocked over charges against four defendants.

Jury selection is scheduled to begin today in the retrial of four men who participated in the incident sparked when agents from the Bureau of Land Management attempted to seize rancher Cliven Bundy's cattle over more than $1 million in unpaid grazing fees.

Federal prosecutors will attempt to prove defendants Richard Lovelien, Scott Drexler, Eric Parker and Steven Stewart conspired with Bundy and others "to threaten, and use, force and violence to interfere with the officers while they executed their duties to enforce the court orders," court documents say.

But in the new trial, federal prosecutors plan to introduce new evidence tying the defendants to other protests of government management of public lands, including events at the Sugar Pine mine in Josephine County, Ore., in April 2015 and the White Hope mine near Lincoln, Mont., in August 2015.

In a notice indicating it planned to file new evidence, federal prosecutors asserted that information highlighting Drexler, Parker and Stewart's participation in the Idaho III%, an anti-government militia group, is "inextricably intertwined" with the conspiracy charges each faces.

But Drexler's attorney, Todd Leventhal, told the Las Vegas Review-Journal that he remains confident the case is unlikely to see a guilty verdict in its second attempt.

"As we saw in the last trial, the government had an exceedingly difficult time in communicating their case to the jury," Leventhal said. "That's because linking our clients to any crime or conspiracy is just not supported by the facts. I imagine the same will hold true in round two."

Jurors could not reach agreement on conspiracy charges against any of the six defendants in the original trial.

In that case, jurors found former FBI informant Gregory Burleson guilty of obstruction of justice and interstate travel in aid of extortion, as well as assault on a federal officer, threatening a federal officer and firearms counts; and found Idaho resident Todd Engel guilty of obstruction of justice and interstate travel in aid of extortion (E&E News PM, April 24).

Charges against participants in the Bunkerville incident were divided into three separate trials, with Cliven Bundy and his sons, Ammon, Melvin and David, slated to face trial 30 days after the retrial is concluded.

The Bundys' trial is expected to begin in October or September, followed by the third and final trial in the case.

Red Flag Warnings

Red flag warnings in effect for northern California, northern Nevada, northwest Utah, eastern Idaho, Oregon, Washington and Montana.

Weather Discussion

Significant monsoonal moisture will begin impacting nearly the entire western half of the CONUS as moisture from tropical systems off shore feed into the monsoonal plume that will continue to rotate around the ridge of high pressure centered over the Four Corners region. A weak cold front will move into the Pacific Northwest and the Northern Rockies in the afternoon bringing breezy conditions along with some slight cooling. Critical fire weather conditions are expected. The East will remain fairly moist with temperatures near average. Looking north to Alaska, temperatures will be well above normal as the ridge over the western states continues to extend northward through the interior. Shower activity will be limited mainly to coastal areas.
