Bristol Bay Subsistence Regional Advisory Council to meet via teleconference

The Bristol Bay Subsistence Regional Advisory Council will reconvene via teleconference on March 29, 2019, from its meeting originally held March 12-13, 2019 in Naknek, in order to complete action items deferred to a working group. The teleconference will begin at 10:00 a.m. on March 29.

The Council will hear a presentation from the working group on use of a snowmachine for taking of an animal on Federal public lands, and after discussion, will take action on whether to submit a proposal to change Federal subsistence wildlife regulations.

The public is welcome to participate in this teleconference by dialing toll-free (866) 916-7020 (passcode: 37311548).

The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to these meetings for all participants. Please direct requests for sign language interpreting services, closed captioning, or other accommodation needs to the Office of Subsistence Management at (800) 478-1456 / (907) 786-3888, or by e-mail at subsistence@fws.gov at least seven business days prior to the meeting.
